Welcome!

A townhouse or condominium community is a shared living environment with rules set and enforced by a Homeowners Association, also known as an HOA. Made up of community members, the Cedar Woods HOA is guided by a set of by-laws and restrictions developed in the best interests of all residents. According to the National Homeowners Association of America, it is "the duty of each association to provide home owners with quality and safe living." Thus, many HOAs establish rules for residents to follow that address safety issues throughout the community.

Each owner is usually responsible for his own safety and that of other tenants or occupants of his or her home, including family members. This includes the installation and maintenance of smoke detectors, burglar alarms and other safety devices in the home.

A copy of this set of rules and regulations, covenants and restrictions is provided to the new resident at the time any purchase or rental agreement is signed.

The new Owner/Resident must make sure that he or she is in agreement and understanding of the covenants and restrictions and rules and regulations before entering into the purchasing/leasing agreement. His or her signature at the end of this document expresses their acceptance of these rules and covenants.

A copy of this acceptance is maintained at the Association's administrative offices. Please read carefully, and understand the following rules and regulations, which are the common basis for a high quality of living in a condominium environment.

CWFOA welcomes you to the Community, and asks for your assistance in enforcing these covenants, by maintaining them, and by reporting any violations promptly.

Sincerely,

Cedar Woods Homeowners Association

This new edition of the CWFOA Rules and Regulations has been edited for format and readability, from the previous version provided to the Unit Owners. No content has been added, edited, or its meaning modified. The previous edition is still current and valid, until further notice.

*Luis Sanchez, CWFOA
Board Secretary*
